

With many advanced features, super reliability and great longevity, 3G Switchable Film is widely accepted in many World-Class projects, which usually use thousands of square meters in one project. This picture shows that one of many large switchable windows/projection screens is installed in World Expo 2010 in Shanghai, China (Jiangsu Pavilion).